

Meet the Professors

Dr. Mark Eckart—Director

Mark S. F. Eckart has two master's degrees, an earned doctorate from two different seminaries and did post-graduate studies at the University of Cincinnati. He has authored four books and has taught for 22 years at the collegiate level. Dr. Eckart has served as Vice-President of a college, pastored several years, preached numerous revivals, was named to the National Dean's List for Academic Excellence, and listed in Who's Who in the Midwest. As an ordained minister in The Wesleyan Church, he serves 85 churches as the District Superintendent in the Indiana South District and as a Trustee at Indiana Wesleyan University. Mark and his wife, Debbie, have three children.

Rev. Glenn D. Black—Professor

Rev. Glenn D. Black was ordained as a minister in The Wesleyan Church on July 22, 1974. He has pastored Wesleyan churches in Ohio and Indiana. He served as editor of God's Revivalist and as District

Superintendent of the Kentucky District of The Wesleyan Church. He has served as a member of the Board of Trustees of SWU and IWU and is presently the Chairman of the Board of Trustees at KMBC. He has a Bachelor of Religious Education degree from God's Bible School and a Master of Arts degree from Indiana Wesleyan University.

In the Indiana South District, he has served as Asst. District Superintendent, editor of Indiana South Wesleyan, Family Camp Coordinator and has served on various committees and boards. He serves on the District Board of Administration.

Rev. Joey Nelson—Professor

Rev. Joey Nelson currently lives in Ligonier, Indiana. He is the Lead Pastor at Stone's Hill Community Church where he has served for over ten years. He leads a multi-staff midsize congregation and serves as the President of New Community Initiatives (a non-profit group that renews and revitalizes the greater Ligonier area). He has over twenty years of combined pastoral and teaching experience and has been teaching at the Clergy Development for Indiana South District for five years. Pastor Nelson has an A.S. degree in information systems. He also has a B.A. in Pastoral Ministry and an M.A. in Biblical Studies. He is ordained in The Wesleyan Church.

Rev. Charles Stroud—Professor

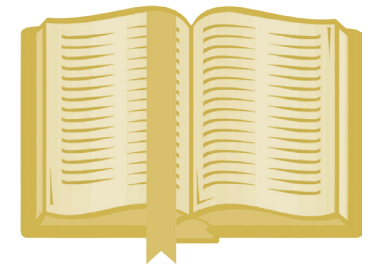

Rev. Charles Stroud was ordained in the Wesleyan Church in 2005. He pastored for 10 years. Rev. Stroud has an A.S. degree from Vincennes University, a B.S. degree from Indiana State University, an M.S. degree from Indiana

State University and attended the Doctoral Program at Ball State University. He taught business classes at Williamsport High School, Indiana School for the Deaf in Indianapolis, Indiana, was Vocational Curriculum Coordinator, Indiana School for the Deaf, and taught at Ball State University in Muncie, Indiana. What Have Previous Students Said?

As a nontraditional ministerial student pastoring full-time with a growing family at home, I was grateful for the extension study opportunities provided by the efforts of the Indiana South District.

District Superintendent, Crossroads District
The Wesleyan Church

Clergy Development at Orleans Wesleyan Campground was a wonderful time of fellowship. Each day started in chapel with prayer and worship; testimonies filled the air, leading to a sermon. This prepared us for great teaching. My belly was fed – food was delicious and plentiful; my spirit and heart were fed, and my mind was fed and challenged. Thank you to all the servant leaders, everybody who made this possible.

My experience while attending the Clergy Development Classes at Orleans, Indiana was a great joy. The atmosphere there was very conducive to learning, establishing new friendships. The staff was very friendly and accommodating. The classes were conducted in such a manner that we all learned from each other. The instructors were well prepared and extremely knowledgeable and approachable. The meals were tasty and plentiful. Should you have opportunity to attend Clergy Development classes in Orleans, Indiana I highly recommend it.

Dr. Mark Eckart's gift in teaching and in-depth knowledge both in theory and practice of ministerial leadership is an invaluable resource he generously shares with his students. Taking Homiletics under him was one of the great experiences I had in the FLAME program. He gave me tools in the ministry that I use up to this day!
